Los Angeles & San Diego Chapters Joint Technical Conference

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS & PAPERS

Industry Applications of Systems Engineering & Systems Approaches

Nov 9-10, 2024, Irvine, CA

The International Council on Systems Engineering (INCOSE) is the premier international forum for systems engineering (SE) and systems approaches, attracting a global audience ranging from novice practitioners to industry leaders. The INCOSE Los Angeles and San Diego Chapters are seeking a blend of technical presentations, panels, and tutorials that reflect experiences, trends, issues, and innovations to advance SE theory and practices by engaging the symposium participants in active discussions.

Topics of Interest

Abstracts for in-person presentations are invited in all SE fields and activities. Topics of interest include (but are not limited to):

- Modern Applications of SE & Systems Methods
- SE for Autonomous Systems
- Complexity Modeling & Assessment
- Resilience & System Trust
- Design Uncertainty & Risk Modeling
- Industry Adoption of SE
- Applications of Systems Thinking
- Expanding Excellence of SE & Systems Methods to New Horizons
- Evolution of SE & Systems Applications & Future Directions
- Exemplars of SE & Implications of New Technology for Systems Applications

All presenters must attend in person.

- Presentations: 45 minutes
- Panels: 45 or 90 minutes
- Tutorials: 1.5 to 3 hours preferred

All professionals are welcome to submit abstracts, not just INCOSE members. Paper submissions are not required, but highly encouraged!

Submission

Submissions should include an abstract of 200 words minimum for a peer-review process via <https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=incoselasd2024>

Submissions may include unpublished work or previously published work of exceptional quality. Accepted papers and presentations will be published in the conference proceedings. Conference fees will be waived for the Lead presenter for each accepted submission.

Questions concerning the submission process, please email gbulla@yahoo.com & leone.young@aero.org
